

From the A252 at Chilham, turn off at Badgers Hill Farm and follow this road until the end where you turn left. At the end of this road you again turn left and then take the next left up through Perry wood to the Pub.

From the M2, come off at junction 6 and take the A251 towards Ashford, pass through North Street and soon you will see Sheldwich church across the fields ahead. Turn left before the church towards Selling and stay on this road all the way through the village passing the White Lion on your left. As you leave the village boundary you will see a turning on the right, take this up through Perry wood to the Pub.

From the A2, take the turning sign posted Selling opposite the Shell petrol station and next to Macknade farm shop and stay on this road. When you pass The Sondes Arms on your left you will need to take the third turning on the left. The first is to Boughton, the second the Chilham/ Chartham and the third Perry wood, take this left up through Perry wood to the Pub.
